

Concealed

Talk about my feelings?

Anyone want to listen?

No, I thought so

Let's talk about everyone else instead

Do I mind? No

Will I listen? Yup

They are talkers

I'm nothing....

but a listener

That's how it goes

I notice that

I'll repair everyone's damage.

Fix everyone else

No hesitation at all

What about me?

Maybe I'll fix myself, with leftover time

Oh, wait,

Too busy fixing them

Oh well

Broken is a.....good look on me

Homework, great

Less sleep, excellent

Another essay, the more the better

College applications, perfect

Me, stressed? of course not

Tired? rarely

Can I handle it? obviously

Overwhelmed? barely

More pressure? bring it on

Am I ok? mostly

Honestly, I'm fine

Am I lying?

Yes

Tense? That's my middle name

Worried? Everyday

Relaxation isn't here with me.....

that abandoned me forever ago.

Comfort? What does that mean again?

I'm not familiar with that.

I'm in the cage..... I put myself in

My feelings are locked up..... in the dark

I won't be a burden

Carry my own weight,

on my shoulders,

And inside my stomach

I know ignoring the heavy load isn't impossible.

Can't catch me breaking

Won't see even my most obvious pain

No one gets to see me shatter, not even me

But don't fret over me

Of course no one will,

because no one knows, how I really feel.

Keep moving forward,

no downfall here on display

I just push it all down, smile, and say

“What’s wrong? I’ll help you.

No

problem.”
